BUCK KNIGHT MEETS HIS DEATH.

The recent rain has put the Ideal Park track in a miserable condition, and although the management has tried its best to keep the course safe there are still some dangerous spots in it. About the half mile pole the ground is very soggy, and yesterday three horses fell in about the same spot. May Rose and Jack Gore, the first two to meet with accident escaped without a scar, but Buck Knight in the fourth race, ridden by one of the track's popular jockeys, Ham, was not so lucky and with the fall of the horse broke his neck and Ham luckily escaped with a broken collar bone. This accident upset the crowd and little interest was taken in the sport after it.

Mr. Rogers, owner of the Elkton Stock Farm, for whom Ham rides, had Blaisrock in the last race and in a soft spot, but after the boy was hurt, he wanted the horse excused, but when it was learned Ham was not seriously hurt, Mr. Rogers started his horse, and with Caywood up, won in a common gallop.

He was the only favorite during the day to win.

The third, a condition race at one mile, furnished a close and exciting finish, Sunny winning by a short head from Newhouse in a staggering manner. There was lots of bumping between the pair but not enough to warrant disqualification.

Bombardon, in new hands, won his race rather easily, but Caywood rode the prettiest race seen at the track and practically stole the purse.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Green Morris' lot has landed in California in good condition.

John Huffman is fitting 28 yearlings for 1897 at his Greenville, Ill., farm.

Patsy Freeman is to ride George Rose's horses in San Francisco the coming winter.

Lou Bramble slipped a tendon at Oakley recently, and has been thrown out of training.

"Lucky" Baldwin, disgusted with the failure of his western division, has ordered it back to California.

Milton Young has sold to Oots & McChesney the brown yearling colt by Strathmore—Annette, by Strachino, for $3,000.

Flying Dutchman's mishap turns out to be serious enough to cause Pat Dunne to retire the horse for the season.

L. P. Diggs, who bred Diggs and Sutton, has a good looking chestnut brother to both at his Woodland, Cal., ranch.

Scherrer, according to California knowledge, is to ride for the El Primero Stable at the San Francisco tracks during the winter.

The St. Louis Branch Stable, which gives public form a jolt at intervals—the last one through Cavalry—is owned by ex-jockey Alex Covington.

Golden Badge in the Seagram Stable was a winner in England and is likely to win in the east. So is that grand horse Morpheus, if he starts.

The Rancho del Paso stallions were given in for taxes at the following values: Salvator, $1,000; Sir Modred, $3,000; Darebin, $1,000, and Goldfinch, $4,000.

J. Webb, whose entries were refused by the National Steeplechase Association at Brooklyn, has sold to M. Kearney the jumper Red Cloud, by Red Iron—Maggie D.

English horse prices rule extremely high nowadays. J. E. Platt sold twelve yearlings at the recent Doncaster sales for 16,940 guineas, an average of 1,411 guineas—about $7,055.

It is not often the full brothers win races consecutively. Yet Joe Clark J H C so scored at Oakley last Friday. Both are by Pirate of Penzance—Lillie B, and both are in the Ernespie Stable.

On a general principle basis Jockey Morgan's suspension may be healthy. Upon his disability over the Caulfield ride of Monday last some mercy can well be used. Caulfield was the offender.

Jockey Dorsey is riding by virtue of a temporary order from the Ohio courts, growing out of an injunction sent against the license committee of the Turf Congress: Messrs. Rees, Labold and Murphy.

Col. H. Luminous P. Hatch, who recently ran one of those unsuccessful meetings, for which he is notorious, at Chattanooga, Tenn., is in jail at Memphis. The charge is financial false pretense, and is not strong enough to check the Colonel's career.

The Turf Congress recently passed a rule abolishing stable names. If it is enforced as against dummies or aliases, such legislation is necessary and healthy. But recent rules have been seemingly made for the shots of evasion. Then too, a law to refine racing material by way of a few uncontaminated thoroughbred cross barrier was adopted. The new License Committee is made up of Messrs. Murphy, Rees and Hopper, and the Board of Appeals of Messrs. Corrigan, Young and Schulte.

Riley Grannan reasonably complains because the Jockey Club gave him no chance to defend himself before it ruled him off. He denies any corrupt action, but admits that he gave Taral $5,000 for riding Sir Francis and winning him $17,000. Will Wallace has gone East to find out just "where he is at." The Jockey Club's action against Wallace, it is said, was mainly taken over a race in which Cassette beat The Winner at Brooklyn September 17. If so, the action is less than tenable. Without any "inside information" overnight and merely on Cassette's turf doings DAILY RACING FORM named her to win, with The Winner second. The horses so finished, although The Winner was an odds-on favorite. Grannan's chief woe is the loss of some $100,000 within the past three weeks.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

M. S. Hughes with Lady Callahan and some other horses arrived at Ideal Park from Wind-sor Wednesday.

Secretary Kuhl of the Chicago Racing Association will spend the winter in California and leaves within two weeks for San Francisco.

The local gossip about winter racing at Ideal Park is pure rot. The track will close surely by November 30 and perhaps before that and not open again until April 15, 1897.

The Oakley judges have suspended C. A. Rich-creek, the O'Fallon Stable trainer, and E. T. McConnell and exonerated Mr. O'Fallon. The McConnell entries will not be accepted at Ideal Park.

Daily Mercury has been revived on the miniature plan. It is still half and half—theatrical and racing. The charts of the revived sheet are no better than they were and no more meager. But it will still be the self-styled "sporting authority of America."

Winner—Ch. c. by Whistle Jacket—Bombazine.
Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won handily on the end; second and third driving hard. Bombardon was well ridden. Boy had him on path all the way. There was a good deal of bumping at head of stretch. Leowicka suffered most. Lillian Wilkes was virtually left at the post. She showed some speed though. Why had some speed, but not much. Bombardon's win must be credited to Caywood.

Winner—Br. c. 3, by Terra Cotta or Folsom—Sunshine.
Post 20 seconds. Start good. Won in a long hard drive of two; third and fourth doing their best. Plutus ran a surprising race; he had early speed but tired when the pinch came. It was a staggering finish between Sunny and Newhouse. Both fouled each other, but not enough to warrant disqualification. Annalyle was played for a good thing but could not get out of her own way. Minerva's race was a night-mare. She performs queerly.

Winner—B. c. 3, by St. Blaise—Shamrock.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second with something left; third driving hard. Blaiserock was much the best, and was never in trouble. Boy on Linette saw he had no chance to win and the filly was given an easy race. Vigars was hard ridden all the way and was never thoroughly in his stride until stretch was reached. He closed considerable ground last furlong.
Scratched—Redskin, 106.
